GRADES OF GRAIN DELIVERABLE ON CONTRACTS FOR FUTURE DELIVERY

Introduction

The information contained in this pamphlet on the grades of grain and flaxseed deliverable on contracts for future delivery has been compiled by the Grain Futures Administration for the purpose of furnishing a means of easy reference to the grades of grain deliverable on contracts on the various markets of North America.

At the present time there are fifteen grain exchanges designated as "contract markets" under the Grain Futures Act, namely--

Baltimore Chamber of Commerce
Board of Trade of the City of Chicago
Chicago Open Board of Trade
Duluth Board of Trade
Hutchinson Board of Trade Association
Board of Trade of Kansas City, Missouri
Los Angeles Grain Exchange
Milwaukee Grain & Stock Exchange
Chamber of Commerce of Minneapolis
New York Produce Exchange
Omaha Grain Exchange
Portland Grain Exchange
Grain Trade Association of
San Francisco Chamber of Commerce
Seattle Grain Exchange
Merchants Exchange of St. Louis

(b)

Transactions on the Winnipeg and Vancouver Grain Exchanges are not subject to provisions of the Grain Futures Act. However, the grades deliverable at these markets are listed in this pamphlet as a matter of convenience.

Transactions on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange are on the basis of delivery in store at Fort William or Port Arthur.

The Baltimore Chamber of Commerce has not traded in grain futures since they were designated as a contract market and, therefore, the grades of grain deliverable at that market are not included in this publication.

The New York Produce Exchange is licensed to trade in Domestic and Bonded wheat and oats. Trading in all futures was discontinued on December 31, 1927. Trading in Bonded wheat futures was resumed March 3, 1931.

The Grain Trade Association of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce was originally designated as a contract market for barley only, but was designated to trade in wheat futures, also, on November 3, 1930.

The Los Angeles Grain Exchange is designated as a contract market for barley, corn and kafir, but at present is trading in barley futures only.

(c)

Future contracts for grain in the Los Angeles Grain Exchange and the Grain Trade Association of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce are known as "time contracts."

The Chamber of Commerce of Minneapolis and the Duluth Board of Trade are the only contract markets in the United States authorized to trade in flaxseed futures.

The Duluth Board of Trade is the only contract market that trades in Durum wheat futures.

The Chamber of Commerce of Minneapolis and the Duluth Board of Trade have contract grades for Winter wheat contracts. However, all contracts unless otherwise specified refer to Spring wheat contracts.

The Hutchinson Board of Trade Association was designated as a contract market on March 16, 1932.

The units of trading in futures contracts at the various markets are lots of 5,000 and 1,000 bushels except for oats contracts at Chicago and all contracts at Los Angeles and San Francisco. The job lot unit of trade in oats contracts at Chicago is 2,000 bushels in order to successfully hedge carloads. The unit of trading in contracts at Los Angeles and San Francisco is 100 tons.

The * indicates contract grades that are generally understood as basic and in some markets are definitely so designated.

Upon all sales of flaxseed for "future" delivery, the following grades of flaxseed may be delivered:- Any and all No. 1 Flaxseed as established by the Joint Board of Grain Appeals or other properly constituted authority of the State of Minnesota, at the contract price; and also, any flaxseed, wherever grown, whose commercial value is equal or better than No. 1 Flaxseed; and any "merchantable" flaxseed of inferior quality, wherever grown, at a difference in price equal to the commercial difference in value as compared with No. 1 Flaxseed.

In case of dispute between the interested parties as to the difference in commercial value, the value shall be fixed by a committee appointed by the President of the Chamber of Commerce in accordance with the provisions of Section 1 of Rule XXIX, relating to the appointment of a special committee of five members.

Fire-burnt or bin-burnt flaxseed shall not be considered of "merchantable" quality deliverable on "futures" contracts.

In case warehouse receipts representing flaxseed inferior in quality to No. 1 flaxseed are delivered on futures contracts, the seller shall invoice upon the buyer for an advance not exceeding 75 per cent of the contract price.

In case the seller considers the actual value of such flaxseed in excess of 75 per cent of the contract price, the seller may, at the time of delivery, also demand that the buyer deposit with the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce a certified check, payable to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, for such an additional amount as the seller considers represents the actual value of such flaxseed above the 75 per cent. The amount of such certified check, however, shall not exceed 25 per cent of the contract price.

In case the buyer is of the opinion that the value of such flaxseed may be less than 75 per cent of the contract price, the buyer may, at the time of payment of the cash advance of 75 per cent (or at any time thereafter and before actual delivery of the flaxseed) demand that the seller shall deposit a certified check with the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and payable to the Secretary, in an amount not to exceed 25 per cent of the contract price.

The Secretary shall hold all checks deposited with him as Secretary, under the provisions of this section, until such time as the actual value of the flaxseed shall have been determined, by the interested parties or by the special committee provided for in the rule.
